嘉德艺术中心位于北京市东城区王府井大街1号，是一个集艺术品拍卖、展览、文物储藏、鉴定修复、学术研究、信息发布、精品酒店为一体的亚洲首个“一站式”文物艺术品交流平台。建筑上部四层至八层悬浮的“方环”呼应周边现代建筑，承载酒店功能，无缝服务下部的拍卖展示空间，并采用“透明砖墙”，融入传统建筑中的砖墙肌理。建筑下部将胡同的肌理延伸至基地，采用退台的层叠方式呼应西侧旧城保护区。立面将《富春山居图》抽象到石材幕墙上。

Located at No.1 Wangfujing Street, Dongcheng District, Beijing, Jiade Art Center is the first "one-station" cultural relics and artwork exchange platform in Asia. It integrates artworks auction, exhibitions, cultural relics storage, appraisal and restoration, academic research, information release and a boutique hotel. The suspended "square ring" on the upper four floors of the building responds to the surrounding modern buildings, carrying the functions of the hotel, serving the auction and display space of the lower space successively. The "transparent brick wall" has been adapted to the suspended ring, which is integrated into the brick wall texture of traditional buildings. The lower space of the building extends the atmosphere of a hutong (Chinese alleyway) to the ground floor. At the same time, the stepping back platforms echo the ancient reserve area on the west. On the facade, a famous Chinese painting Dwelling in the Fuchun Mountains is abstracted onto the stone wall.
